For The Love of Chocolate Foundation Receives Support from Businesses
Coalesse and Zagone Studios Form Partnerships with Scholarship Foundation

Chicago, Illinois (September 28, 2009) – For The Love of Chocolate Foundation, which provides scholarships to qualified students of The French Pastry School at City Colleges of Chicago has formulated new partnerships with businesses Coalesse and Zagone Studios. Coalesse has donated $1,500.00 to the foundation, and Zagone Studios will contribute 5% of their internet sales from now through Halloween.

Coalesse sells a variety of products and collections for the modern workplace environment, partnering with brands such as Carl Hansen & Søn (Denmark), Walter Knoll AG & Co. (Germany), and Viccarbe (Spain). Coalesse is continuing their sponsorship with For the Love of Chocolate Foundation for the second year in a row, as well as teaming up with The French Pastry School on October 14th from 5:30 – 7:30 pm in the Coalesse showroom at The Merchandise Mart. Guests will have the opportunity to see Chef John Kraus of The French Pastry School demonstrate a sculpture made entirely of sugar, as well as some classic French confectioneries.

“We are proud to support For the Love of Chocolate Foundation,” said Michelle Riley from Coalesse, “It’s a wonderful opportunity to support those passionate students seeking a quality education.” Find more information about Coalesse at www.coalesse.com.

Zagone Studios will donate 5% of their web site sales to For the Love of Chocolate Foundation through the Halloween season when the code “Bnine” is placed in the “Sales Code Field” provided in the shopping cart. Chicago-based Zagone Studios creates high-quality Halloween masks and costumes. Their masks and costumes are designed so that a person can easily wear them for extended periods of time. More than 30 years of innovation and creativity make Zagone Studios products the best in the industry.

“As artisans who create products primarily for the Halloween season, it’s great to be able to support people of another trade who contribute to that same enterprise,” said Tony Zagone, co-owner of Zagone Studios, “We’re glad to be able to help the pastry chefs and candy makers of the future attain the best education available.” More information on Zagone Studios may be found at www.zagonestudios.com.

The 5th Annual “For the Love of Chocolate” Gala at The French Pastry School will take place on February 6, 2010 for an all new chocolate extravaganza. For more details, see www.fortheloveofchocolatefoundation.org.

For the Love of Chocolate Foundation provides scholarships for qualified students in the specialized training of the pastry arts. The foundation awards scholarships to L’Art de la Patisserie program taught by The French Pastry School for the City Colleges of Chicago. For the Love of Chocolate Foundation promotes commitment in pastry arts education for individuals looking to change careers, as well as individuals who have shown potential in the culinary field but who have no formal pastry education.

The French Pastry School, founded by Chefs Jacquy Pfeiffer and Sebastien Canonne, M.O.F., offers the best possible pastry instruction taught by master pastry chefs who have attained the highest achievements in their craft. Our programs are ideal for anyone interested in pastry from the career changer to the professional to the novice.
